

DISCIPLESHIP ONLINE

CBOQ and the Small Group Network are hosting two conversations on discipleship. As we are moving online for our worship services, what does it mean for us to make disciples online?

Three friends—Paul Lam, CBOQ Church Life and Leadership Associate, Dennis Funk, Small Group Network, and Sheldon Dyck, small groups pastor at Mississauga City Baptist Church—will host this training.

Discipleship and Small Groups

May 14, 10:00-11:30 AM (90 minutes)

Discipleship and Spiritual Practices

June 4, 10:00-11:30 AM (90 minutes)

One of the key aspects of discipleship is transformation, but we can't talk about transformation unless we talk about spiritual practices. Spiritual practices have often been looked at as simply a personal time of devotions. Through our spiritual practices, we are making space for Christ to transform us. However, it is the church's responsibility to teach the people of God how to sit in the presence of God. We learn how to practice the spiritual disciplines in community but, when is the last time someone taught you how to pray, hear God, meditate on God's Word? For this session, we will explore the meaning of the disciplines, explore some disciplines together through learning and practice.

Schedule

10:00-10:35 AM	Introduction & Discipleship – Spiritual Practices (Paul Lam) With two minute intermission
10:35-10:55 AM	Spiritual Practices in Groups (Dennis Funk)
10:55-11:00 AM	Break
11:00-11:20 AM	Spiritual Practices in Groups (Sheldon Dyck)
11:20-11:30 AM	Closing Conversation, Blessing & Prayer
